and providers

WIPO | GREEN

The Marketplace
for Sustainable Technology

WIPO GREEN is a global marketplace that promotes green tech innovation and diffusion.

We connect those seeking cutting-edge, environmentally sustainable solutions with technology and service providers – particularly in developing countries.

Whether you are providing a green technology or looking for one to meet your needs, you are welcome to join WIPO GREEN. It is easy and free of charge.

WIPO GREEN has a growing network of 6,000 Members spanning 170 countries.

The WIPO GREEN Network includes multinational companies, small and medium-sized enterprises, investors, consulting companies, incubators, universities, government institutions, NGOs, associations and others.

Through the WIPO GREEN Database, you can:

- Gain global visibility for your green products or needs.
- Find partners and uncover business and investment opportunities.

Through the WIPO GREEN Network, you can:

- Meet potential partners and investors at matchmaking events and exhibitions.
- Advertise your services or find the expertise you need to take your business to the next level with the WIPO GREEN Experts Database.
- Benefit from resources and training on IP management, commercialization, licensing and more.

By joining WIPO GREEN, you can collaborate with us on projects and events, leverage our global network of key sector actors, increase your visibility, and join the fight against climate change.
