Notifications Concerning Treaties Administered by WIPO in the Field of Industrial Property

Budapest Treaty

Limitation of Status of International Depositary Authority With Respect to "Microscopic Algae"

NATIONAL BANK FOR INDUSTRIAL MICROORGANISMS AND CELL CULTURES
(NBIMCC)
(Bulgaria)

The Director General of WIPO was informed by the following communication received on February 25, 1993, dated February 23, 1993, from the Government of Bulgaria of the withdrawal of its declaration of assurances made under Article 7 of the Budapest Treaty on the International Recognition of the Deposit of Microorganisms for the Purposes of Patent Procedure with respect to "microscopic algae," a kind of microorganism in respect of which it had been announced that deposits would be accepted by the National Bank for Industrial Microorganisms and Cell Cultures (NBIMCC), an international depositary authority under that Treaty, but for which no deposit has ever been made with the said authority:

Bulgaria to the United Nations Office and the International Organizations at Geneva presents its compliments to the World Intellectual Property Organization and has the honour to communicate to the latter the following information:

On the basis of Article 8, item (2) of the Budapest Treaty on the International Recognition of the Deposit of Microorganisms for the Purposes of Patent Procedure and the Rule 4.2(d) for its implementation the Declaration of the Government of the Republic of Bulgaria of 27 August 1987 made in accordance of Article 7(1)(a) of the same Treaty is not applicable any more for microscopic algae. Thus microscopic algae will not be accepted for deposit by the National Bank for Industrial Microorganisms and Cell Cultures.

[End of the text of the communication of the Government of Bulgaria]

Pursuant to Article 8(2)(b) of the Budapest Treaty and Rule 4.2(c) of the Regulations under the Budapest Treaty, the limitation of the status of international depositary authority of the National Bank for Industrial Microorganisms and Cell Cultures (NBIMCC) with respect to "microscopic algae," shall take place at the expiration of three months after the date of the above-mentioned communication of the Government of Bulgaria, that is, on May 22, 1993.

Budapest Communication No. 82 (this communication is the subject of Budapest Notification No. 113, of April 6, 1993).

Notifications Concerning the UPOV Convention

International Convention for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants (UPOV)

New Member of UPOV

FINLAND

The Government of Finland deposited, on March 16, 1993, its instrument of accession to the International Convention for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants of December 2, 1961, as revised at Geneva on November 10, 1972, and on October 23, 1978.

Finland has not heretofore been a member of the International Union for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants, founded by the said International Convention.

The said International Convention will enter into force, with respect to Finland, on April 16, 1993. On that date, Finland will become a member of UPOV.

For the purpose of determining its share in the total amount of the annual contributions to the budget of UPOV, one contribution unit is applicable to Finland.
